

July 2 Placing of the Precious Robe of the Theotokos at Blacharnæ

TROPARION - Tone 8

O Ever-virgin Theotokos, refuge and protection of the human race, /
Thou hast given thy people a most powerful inheritance: / Thy holy mantle and sash which remained incorrupt because of thy virginal childbearing. /
Both time and nature are renewed in thee. /
So we beseech thee to grant peace to the world and great mercy to our souls.

KONDAKION - Tone 4

O pure Lady, full of grace divine, /
Thou hast given to all the faithful a garment of incorruption, /
The holy mantle that covered thy sacred body, /
And with love we celebrate its placing at the Church in Blacharnæ, ///
So we joyfully cry to thee: Rejoice, most honored Virgin, thou boast of all Christians.
