

June 27 Ven. Sampson the Hospitable of Constantinople

TROPARION - Tone 8

 Patiently didst thou reap thy reward, O ven' rable father, / Living a life of constant prayer, loving, and feeding the poor. /

 Now we beseech thee, O merciful and hospitable father
 Sampson, ///

 To entreat Christ our God that our souls may be saved.

KONTAKION - Tone 8

 We rejoice today with psalms and hymns, O venerable father
 Sampson, /

 As we hasten with thanksgiving to the holy shrine, /
 And as we glorify thee as an excellent physician and powerful intercessor before God, /

 So we glorify Christ who hath granted the grace of healing to thee.
