

TROPARION - Tone 1

Thou wast a pillar of patience, O ven'erable one /
Having imitated the forefathers of old: /
Job in suffering, Joseph in temptuptions, /
And living as a bodiless angel while being in the flesh. /
O Daniel, our ven'erable father ///
Beseech Christ God that our souls may be saved.

KONDAKION - Tone 8

Thou didst ascended thy pillar like a great and radiant star, /
And didst illumine the whole world with the wonders of thy miracles, /
Thus dispelling the gloominess of deception, O ven'erable one. /
Therefore, we beseech thee to shine forth now into the hearts of thy faithful servants, O father Daniel, ///
With the unwaning and everlasting light of knowledge of God.
