

July 5

Relics St. Sergius of Radonezh

TROPARION - Tone 8

From thy youth thou didst accept Christ in thy soul, O ven'erable one, /
Serving only Him and despising all earthly cares. /
Courageously thou didst go to dwell in the wilderness /
Bearing spiritual children in obedience and reaping the fruits of humility, /
Through this becoming an abode of the Trinity / Enlightening all, and granting abundant healing to those who come to thee in faith, ///
O our father Sergius, pray to Christ God that our souls may be saved.

KONDAKION - Tone 8

Today thy precious relics shine forth from the earth as the sun / Showing incorruption as a fragrant flower, scented with miracles /
Granting healing to all the faithful and making glad thy flock. /
As thou standest now before the throne of the Holy Trinity / Entreat God's help and grace for the victory of all Christians over their adversaries ///
That we may sing: Rejoice, O divinely-wise Sergius.