

JUNE 15 Holy Prophet Amos; Our Father among the Saints, Jonah, Metropolitan of Moscow and All Russia

TROPARION (General for a Prophet) - Tone 2 (None given in the Menaion)

We celebrate the memory /
Of Thy prophet Amos, /
Through him, we implore Thee, O Lord, ///
To save our souls.

TROPARION (St. Jonah) - Tone 4

From thy youth thou didst devote thy whole life to the Lord, /
Through prayer, labors and fasting, thou didst become a model of the virtues. /
Therefore, God having seen thy good intentions, /
Raised thee up as a shepherd of His holy Church. /
After thy repose thy precious body was preserved whole and incorrupt, /
O Hierarch Jonah. ///
Pray Christ God that He may save our soul

KONTAKION (St. Jonah) - Tone 8

Thou didst bind thyself to the Lord from the days of thine infancy, /
And through vigils and fasting thou didst restrain the passions of thy flesh /
Therefore, thou wast revealed to be a pure vessel and habitation of the Most Holy Spirit /

Thus, the Church established thee as her own shepherd and hierarch; /

Tending her well, thou hast departed to the Lord whom thou didst love with thine whole heart. /

Therefore, we pray thee: Remember us who, with faith, honor thy holy memory, ///

That we may cry out to thee: Rejoice, O father Jonah, most honored and holy hierarch.

KONTAKION (Prophet Amos) - Tone 4

Having cleansed thy radiant heart with the Spirit, /

O glorious great prophet Amos, /

Thou didst receive the gift of prophecy from on high /

And didst proclaim to the world: ///

"Behold, this is our God! And there shall none other be accounted of in comparison with Him."
